

MY FRIEND.
When comfort has fled like the hopes of tomorrow,
And all our fair prospects and pleasures are gone,
To chase away gloom, is there naught we can borrow?
O yes! there is a cordial, the heart of a friend.
When the flood-tide of grief o'er the heart is fast stealing,
And hope's sun refuses a promise to lend,
O the sweetest to withdraw from this world of unfeeling,
And find a dear home in the heart of a friend.
Let the vision of home's loved ones lead you,
The mist of avarice and gold without end,
Are they blest with contentment? O yes, it is true,
The best comfort comes from the heart of a friend.
True pleasure's advance by a virtuous companion,
Where kindness and frankness in harmony blend;
It freely flows sweetly in streams of affection,
Like mild summer showers from the heart of a friend.
Though none in vain may place their chief pleasure,
While others in riches will strive to ascend;
I ask not for those, for I'm blest with a treasure,
A gem worth possessing, the heart of a friend.
In the world's boasted friendship, I find no protection,
My hopes on its flatteries no longer depend;
My heart is fast bound by the cords of affection,
With the heart of my generous, genuine friend.
How oft have we wandered at twilight's declension,
In chaste conversation, our moments to spend;
The goodness of Heaven how often we've seen,
In giving each other a confident friend.
And now, when my prospects with gloom are o'er shaded,
And weighty misfortunes my spirits oppress;
When the smiles of the faithful, like autumn have faded,
How kind, how consoling the heart of a friend!

The nonsensical practice, which is every day becoming more and more prevalent, of noting and publishing to the world, the most trifling and unmeaning anecdotes of conspicuous men, descending sometimes to the most contemptible and disgusting minutiae, is severely and justly ridiculed in the subjoined extract. We copy it from a letter to the Editor to the New-York Mirror, from his correspondent in London.—Lynch, Vir.
"This species of folly (says he) was well ridiculed by the John Bull newspaper a few years ago, in a story told about his royal highness, the Duke of Gloucester, or, as it used to call him for shortness, 'silly Billy.' I have forgotten the language, but the substance is as follows:—As his royal highness was walking in the park the other morning, with his hands behind his back, and his mouth open, as his highness' custom, there happened to come a shower of rain, upon which his highness, with his usual promptness, turned round to his secretary Taylor, who was in attendance, and said, 'Taylor, the rain comes into my mouth—what shall I do?' To this condescending interrogation, Taylor replied, 'Had not your highness better shut it?' Upon which, his highness, with that energy and decision which characterize his minutest actions, immediately shut his mouth, and no more rain found admittance during the remainder of the walk."

A Lawyer's Story.—Tom strikes Dick over the shoulders with a rattan as big as your little finger. A lawyer would tell you the story something in this way:
"And that, whereas the said Thomas, at the said Providence, in the year and day aforesaid, in and upon the body of the said Richard, in the peace of God and the State, then and there being, did make a most violent assault, and inflicted a great many and divers blows, kicks, cuffs, thumps, bumps, contusions, gashes, wounds, hurts, damages, and injuries, in and upon the head, neck, breast, stomach, lips, knees, shins, and heels of the said Richard, with divers sticks, staves, canes, poles, clubs, logs of wood, stones, guns, dirks, swords, daggers, pistols, cutlasses, bludgeons, blunderbusses, and boarding-pikes, then and there held in the hands, fists, claws, and clutches of him, the said Thomas."

NEW AND FASHIONABLE CLOTHING.
JUST received direct from New-York, at OOK & ELLIS' Fashionable Clothing Store, No. 4, Commercial Row—Broadway.
A large and splendid assortment of gentlemen's apparel of every description, such as Superfine Blue, Black, Olive, Green and Mixt Dress Coats, Superfine Blue, Olive, and Mixt Frack Coats, Green Coats, with and without Collars, Blue, Black, and Mixt Cloth Pants, Blue, Black, and Mixt Cloth Trowsers, Blue, Black, and Mixt Cloth Vests, Blue, Black, and Mixt Cloth Shirts, Blue, Black, and Mixt Cloth Handkerchiefs, Gloves and Cravats, Superfine and Laced Collars, First quality Black and Drab Hats, Boots and Shoes, and a great variety of gentlemen's fancy articles.
The above goods were made up during the past summer, by his senior partner in New-York, who has spared no pains or expense, in having them made of the best materials, and in the most fashionable style. Their friends and customers are invited to call and examine their assortment, as they are determined to sell as low as any other House in the State, if not lower.
Also, just received, a handsome supply of Blue, Black, Olive, Steel-Mixt and Brown CLOTHS, which will enable them to make up to order, at the shortest notice, as they have now in their employ a number of the best workmen.

D. WOODRUFF.
HAS pleasure in informing his friends and the public, that he has now made such arrangements with a first-rate "Northern House," as will enable him to furnish any book now in use, either foreign or domestic, on the very lowest terms. Orders are made up for the north weekly. Persons wishing to replenish their Libraries, will find it to their interest to call at the
TUSCALOOSA BOOK-STORE,
where there will be constantly kept for sale BLANK BOOKS of various descriptions and sizes, together with a general supply of Law, Medical, Miscellaneous, Classical and School Books—including all the new publications of the day, &c. &c.
Schools, Academies, and Colleges furnished at the lowest possible prices.
Orders respectfully solicited.
I have so repeatedly reminded my friends and the public, of the necessity of their lending a liberal support to the establishment, that were I to continue the call—without an apology, it would seem to carry a tone of complaint with it. This is far from my intention; it would be treating a generous and liberal public with great injustice and ingratitude. The support has been beyond my expectations; but at most it necessarily must be inconsiderable in town of the age and limited population of Tuscaloosa.
I believe all will admit that a Book and Stationary establishment is an important acquisition to our town, and a permanent benefit to the country—and such will permit me again to remark, that its present success, until our public institutions are further advanced, requires the support that the liberal and well wishing can bestow. D. WOODRUFF.

STATE OF ALABAMA,
PORT OF MOBILE, Dec. 20, 1830.—We, the undersigned Wardens of the Port aforesaid, do hereby certify that, by request of WADSWORTH BACON, master of the steamboat ERIE, we this day repaired on board said boat, and examined her thoroughly, and found her sound, staunch, strong, well found, and in all respects river worthy.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Tuscaloosa, Dec. 7, 1830.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, it has been made known to this Department, that negro man slave, named Harry, the property of Garner, who was convicted at a recent term of the Circuit Court, holden for the county of Monroe, of the murder of Mr. Forster, has made his escape from the jail of said county. Now, therefore, I have thought proper to offer, and I do hereby offer, a reward of one hundred dollars, to any person who shall apprehend and deliver the said boy Harry, to the proper authority of Monroe county, that he may abide the sentence of the law, for the offence of which he stands convicted.
Given under my hand, and the seal of the State at Tuscaloosa, the 7th December, 1830, and of the Independence of the United States of America the fifty-fifth.
By the Governor: GABRIEL MOORE.
JAMES I. THORNTON, Sec'y of State.

The following is the description furnished this Department to identify the said convict: aged between 25 and 30 years, about six feet high, quite black, very bold in his appearance and speech, and a very likely fellow, he has a burn upon his right hand, extending from his fingers to his wrist, the scar is very perceptible, although, his hand is but little, if any, crippled thereby.

Female Boarding School.
THE sixth Session of my School, ended on the 23d Dec. and on the first Monday in February, the School will be opened for the reception of scholars. For the information of the public in general, I shall make my terms of tuition known, which are as follows: For Spelling, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, $6 per session of six months; English Grammar, Geography, History, Natural Philosophy, Drawing, projection of Maps, and Needle work of various kinds, at $8 in advance or $10 at the end of the Session. For Boarding, (Bedding not included) Washing and Candles, per Session $35. But if I furnish Bedding, $7 in addition to the above will be charged. The School is in one of the most healthy neighborhoods in the State. I take this opportunity, of tendering my thanks to those persons who have liberally supported my School, and who may hereafter patronize it, I can only say, I shall devote my time and attention to the advancement of those committed to my care. SCIENCE.
THE Jefferson Academy, at Elyton, under the Superintendence of C. G. McPHERSON, A. B. has commenced its second session, with the most flattering prospects. Although in its infancy, such is the confidence the public entertain of the fitness and qualifications of the conductors of this institution, that it now numbers between fifty and sixty students, of which about twenty are engaged in the Latin and Greek languages.
TERMS PER SESSION OF FIVE MONTHS.
For spelling, reading and writing.....6 00
English Grammar, Geography, Arithmetic, &c.....8 00
Languages and other higher branches.....12 00
Board can be had at respectable houses at from six to eight dollars per month.
The Trustees have employed the Rev JOHN WILLIAMS as an assistant teacher, which enables Mr McPHERSON to devote his attention principally to the students engaged in the higher branches.
A strict course of moral deportment is observable in this institution, with a strong desire to make each student thorough in what he may learn; and from its healthy situation, the cheapness of board, and its incipient prosperity, the trustees feel justified in recommending it to the patronage of all persons wishing to educate their children.
By order of the board,
PEYTON KING,
President of the board of Trustees.
PETER WALKER, Sec'y. [dec17 37]

GREENSBOROUGH FEMALE ACADEMY.
THE friends and patrons of this institution are hereby informed, that the Trustees having concluded an arrangement, with Mr. G. D. MURPHY, to take charge of and conduct the school to be taught therein, it will open for the reception of pupils between the first and fifteenth of the present month. The Trustees believe that they are justified in assuring the public, that the arrangement now made will be permanent; and that the school will be conducted in a manner that will command the confidence and approbation of all who may send their children to it. Mr MURPHY will have associated with him, female teachers of the best acquisitions and capacity, in connexion with whom he will be able to teach all the branches of female education, including the elementary, literary, and scientific, useful and ornamental branches. The prices will be the same as them of the Tuscaloosa Female Academy, which are something lower than those heretofore charged in the Greensborough Female Academy.
The health, society, and situation of the village of Greensborough vicinity are so well known, that it is deemed needless to say any thing on the subject.
Good board, at moderate prices, can be had in genteel families in the village and neighborhood. By order of the board, jan 1 39 JNO. ERWIN, Sec'y.

TUSCALOOSA FEMALE ACADEMY.
THE Trustees of this Institution, having been informed that rumors have gone abroad that there is no Female School in operation at Tuscaloosa, deem it advisable to inform the community that such rumors are entirely groundless. A union having been effected between the Tuscaloosa Female Education Society and the Sims' Female Academy, there is now in operation at this place, a promising Institution under the name of the Tuscaloosa Female Academy. The union which has been effected was designed, and it is confidently hoped that it will have the effect, to unite the feelings and interests of the whole community, upon the highly interesting and all important subject of Female Education.—This union too, places a more ample fund under the control of the Board of Trustees, and they hope thereby to be able to make the Institution equal to the highest expectations of its most sanguine friends.
The first session of the Tuscaloosa Female Academy commenced on Tuesday, the 6th inst. under the management of Miss ELLEN B. HOWE, and Mrs. ROBINSON, of whose qualifications it is deemed unnecessary to speak, the community having had ample proofs of their abilities in their occupation.
Arrangements have been made for procuring another instructress, who is expected in the course of the present Autumn. Measures have also been adopted for the procurement of some gentleman of reputation to act as Superintendent, or President of the Institution.
Mr. PRISTER and Mrs. PATRICK, whose qualifications are favorably known, will continue to instruct in the Musical department of the School.
Arrangements are making for the erection of an Academy edifice, upon an enlarged and improved plan. It is also contemplated to connect a boarding house with the Institution.
TERMS OF TUITION ARE AS FOLLOWS:
Elementary Class.....$6 00
Introductory Class.....8 00
Junior Class.....12 00
Senior Class.....15 00
Drawing and Painting will be an extra charge of $3 per session.
The Tuition Fees in all cases to be paid one half in advance
A. READY,
Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Cure for Dyspepsia.
THE undersigned has just returned from the Eastward, in search of a cure for this formidable disease; and having been relieved in a short time from the symptoms of the complaint called Dyspepsia or Indigestion, by the new method of cure practiced by Messrs. Oliver and John Halsted, and having seen so many wonderful cures effected by them, and on persons nearly exhausted by the disease, determined to purchase their right of practice for the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, and Alabama. Believing that the public must have been apprized before this time of this wonderful discovery, he deems it unnecessary to lay before them, volumes of proof that might be obtained, well knowing that the facts will soon develop themselves, the cure being effected in from five to twenty days. About two thousand persons can already bear testimony to the happy effects of this invaluable discovery, and practice of Mr. Halsted. He has also given reference to some of the most eminent and respectable citizens of New-York and Philadelphia, viz. the Hon. James Kent, Chancellor of the State of New-York; Rev. Gardner Spring, Joshua Vaddington, Esq. Herman Le Roy, Esq. And the fact of the cure of many about Nashville, Ten. and Bollinggreen, Ky. since my return, to the great astonishment of all, puts this remedy beyond doubt or dispute. And to prove to the Medical Faculty that this mode of cure is founded on Physiological principles, I have not hesitated to invite them to see our mode of cure; and without a single exception, as yet, they have pronounced it eminent, and have either purchased out districts or counties, or taken agencies. In fact, it is countenanced and acknowledged by the most eminent Physicians of New-York and Philadelphia. I would also refer to Dr. Dove's advertisement, in the Richmond Enquirer. It is well known that he stands at the head of his profession in Virginia. Also in Drs. Farrer and Eggleston, in the same paper. They all go to prove the efficacy of this wonderful mode of cure.
From the press of business at home, and finding it will be impossible to attend personally in Alabama, the undersigned has appointed Dr. W. B. Smith his agent and attorney in fact, for South Alabama, who is in every way qualified to administer to patients with the most perfect safety; and in order that the cure may be brought to every man's door, he is legally authorized to sell and dispose of the privilege of practice, for counties or districts, as medical gentlemen or others may feel disposed to purchase, or to appoint agents in any place he may see cause. Believing that the remedy is the only one to be relied on as effectual, having labored under the disease for a term of years, and tried the skill of some of the most eminent Physicians of Alabama and Tennessee without relief, and having been cured in so short a time by this mode of practice, I can recommend it to the world as effectual; and for my character and standing in society, I refer to the members of the Legislature of North Alabama, particularly of Madison county; and to His Excellency Gov. Moore. Clergymen of every denomination attended to without fee or reward. In no case will a fee of more than $50 be charged. GEO. S. SMITH.
N. B. All letters addressed to W. B. SMITH, Tuscaloosa, will be strictly attended to.
